Dashboard with clickable cards.
Those cards also act as filters.
Clicking one will take you to the WSO page, with the filter applied

The Dashboard also provides visual metrics on the status of the WSO like the most recent and those not cancelled and have a large outstanding balance

This page creates the WSO. This is where our Excel tracker begins so it's the entry point for the system. Maggy keeps her own, and so do we. Why though?
Why not have it filled once and both sides have the same data

Description

Remarks

This is going to be the most exciting module. I plan to automate the whole process. Sometimes our bottlenecks are caused by breakage in communication. I plan that everytime an action is performed a notification is sent to all relevant parties. Eliminates errors and time taken to write multiple reports.

Notification Settings

Notification Behaviour

Event	Enabled	Email	In-App	Status
Attachment Uploaded Raised whenever a document is attached to a workshop order.	☒	☐	☒	☒ Active
Workshop Order Cancelled Raised when a workshop order is cancelled.	☐	☐	☐	☐ Disabled
Workshop Order Completed Raised when every line item has been fully received.	☒	☐	☐	☒ Active
Workshop Order Created Raised whenever a new workshop order is created.	☐	☐	☐	☐ Disabled
Workshop Order Reactivated Raised when a cancelled workshop order is restored.	☐	☐	☐	☐ Disabled

This is the WSO details page. Users will be able to upload a single WSO which can be used from trade to CAD room to cutting e.t.c.
Only those with right permissions will be able allowed to cancel a wso but the notification is sent to all relevant parties

This is where users will mark orders in a WSO as received using actions.
The most exciting thing is that all this will be automatic. A user will only have to receive an item and everything else happens based on preset rules.
